PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Technology professional with 11 years of client-facing consulting experience across fintech, e-commerce, and SaaS, focused on talent and recruitment. Deeply familiar with the hiring landscape from both sides of the table: evaluating technical talent, leading and building teams, and understanding what companies genuinely need before they hire. Fluent in English, an expert user of LinkedIn and JobStreet, and technically fluent enough to source and screen IT and digital candidates at a depth most recruiters cannot match. Combines genuine relationship-building instincts with the discipline of a consultant who has juggled multiple high-stakes engagements and deadlines for over a decade.
